Harris Academy of the Arts to celebrate ten year anniversary

Lincoln, Nebraska - Harris Academy of the Arts, a private lesson and group class studio located in Lincoln, NE, is celebrating its ten year anniversary with a bang on Sunday, September 21 at the Harris Academy of the Arts studio which is located on 29th Street and Pine Lake Road. The celebration will include a faculty showcase concert, games, prize giveaways, food, sample lessons, and much more.

Harris Academy of the Arts began in 2004 under the leadership of owner and director, Vicki Harris who had been teaching piano and violin out of her home since 1984. The business has expanded and moved two times since then, allowing the capacity for growth in student enrollment and a wider variety of class options. Currently, Harris is privileged to have front row seats to the musical development of 350+ students – young to young at heart, beginning to advanced.

Vicki explained how she is very proud of the growth of the business and how rewarding it can be. "It's hard to believe that we've been in business for 10 years. Though many hours go into running a successful business, it has all been very rewarding!". When asked what she looks forward to in the next ten years, she responded by saying, "I am often asked if I want the business to continue to grow. Perhaps – if it is good for the business and the students. Of greatest importance, providing top quality music education with expanded music offerings relevant and pertinent for our students and families". And that's what Harris strives to do- provide top quality music education for students of any age who want to learn and grow in their musical abilities.

The 10 year anniversary showcase will take place at the Harris Academy of the Arts studio which is located at 2935 Pine Lake Road. The faculty showcase will begin at 3:00 pm and will be followed by several game booths, face painting, barbeque, and prize giveaways. Also following the showcase will be free sample lessons inside the studio for anyone who wants to see how much fun private music lessons are. Harris Academy of the Arts is inviting the Lincoln community to help celebrate this milestone. Join us for an evening filled with fun, laughter, and lots of music!
